Government Decision on prohibitions and restrictions concerning certain chemicals causing harm to health, and products containing such chemicals

(489/1992)

Section 1

(1) This Decision contains provisions on prohibitions and restrictions concerning chemicals (substances and preparations) causing harm to health, and products and materials containing or treated with such chemicals (Appendix).

(2) Chemicals listed in the Appendix to this Decision may be used for research purposes unless their use for research or corresponding purposes has been restricted.

Section 2

Compliance with this Decision is supervised by the supervisory authorities referred to in the Chemicals Act and the labour protection authorities, each in its own sphere of competence.

Section 3

This Decision enters into force on January 1, 1993.
